General comments

Question 1: Do you have comments on the overall draft of the SEEA Ecosystem Accounting?

In general, we have two comments to the structural layout of the first draft version: 1, Integrate chapter3 and chapter 4 into one individual chapter, because ecosystem extent is a broad concept also include ecosystem typology, classification, methodology and delineation, it somehow supposed to describe and illustrate in a integrity and systematic form;

2, we have little disagreement on the structure and contents of Section C and Section D. In the current version its distinguished by physical and monetary term for Ecosystem services and Ecosystem assets, but in practice from convenient usability and reference points of view, it should distinguished by Ecosystem services and Ecosystem assets, then introduce physical accounting and monetary valuation for each of them.
