

SEEA Ecosystem Accounting (SEEA EA) Key concepts

Sokol Vako

United Nations Statistical Institute for Asia and the Pacific

14 April 2022

Some housekeeping items

- * 30 min presentation/30 min Q&A
- * Please ask question through the Q&A feature; no need to wait till the end of the presentation
- * The webinar is being recorded and will be posted for later viewing.
- * This course has been put together by UNSD and UNSIAP under the overall guidance of the UN Committee of Experts on Environmental Accounting.

But first some details about the course

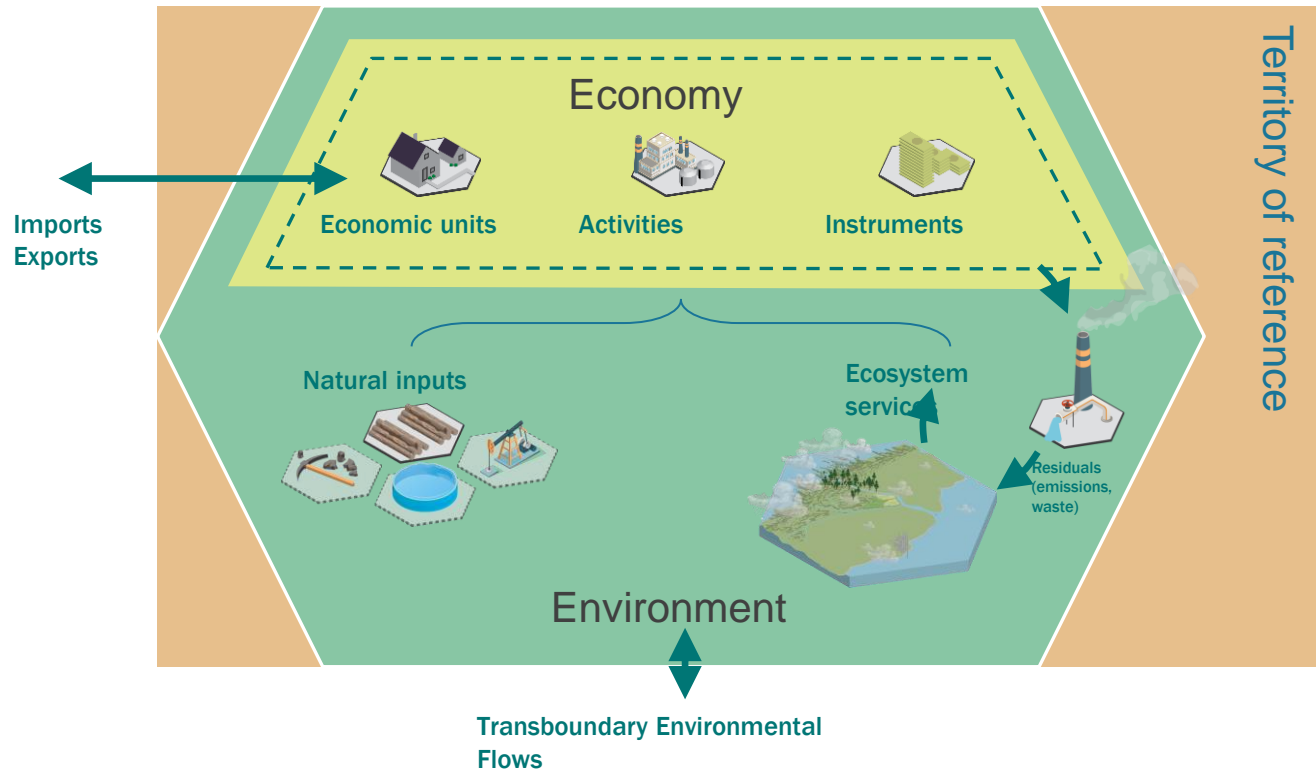

Dates	Topics	Webinar
Week 1 (11-17 Apr)	Key concepts	14 April
Week 2 (18-24 Apr)	Extent	20 April (Wed.)
Week 3 (25 Apr-1 May)	Condition	28 April
Week 4 (2-8 May)	Services	6 May (Fri.)
Week 5 (9-15 May)	Valuation	12 May (10 AM UTC)
Week 6 (16-22 May)	Modelling	19 May (12 PM UTC)
Week 7 (23-29 May)	Indicators	26 May (12 PM UTC)
Week 8 (30 May-5 June)	Scenarios	2 June
Week 9 (6 -11 June)	Exam!

A warm-up question

True/False—Please answer by clicking the poll in the chat!

The SEEA Ecosystem Accounting is only relevant for terrestrial (land) ecosystems.

SEEA Conceptual Framework

Two sides of the SEEA

System of Environmental-Economic Accounting 2012
Central Framework

Measures environmental assets and individual resources and how the economy used them

Timber

Water

Fish

Soil

Minerals

System of Environmental-Economic Accounting
Ecosystem Accounting

Measures ecosystems and the services they provide to economic and human activity

Forests

Rivers

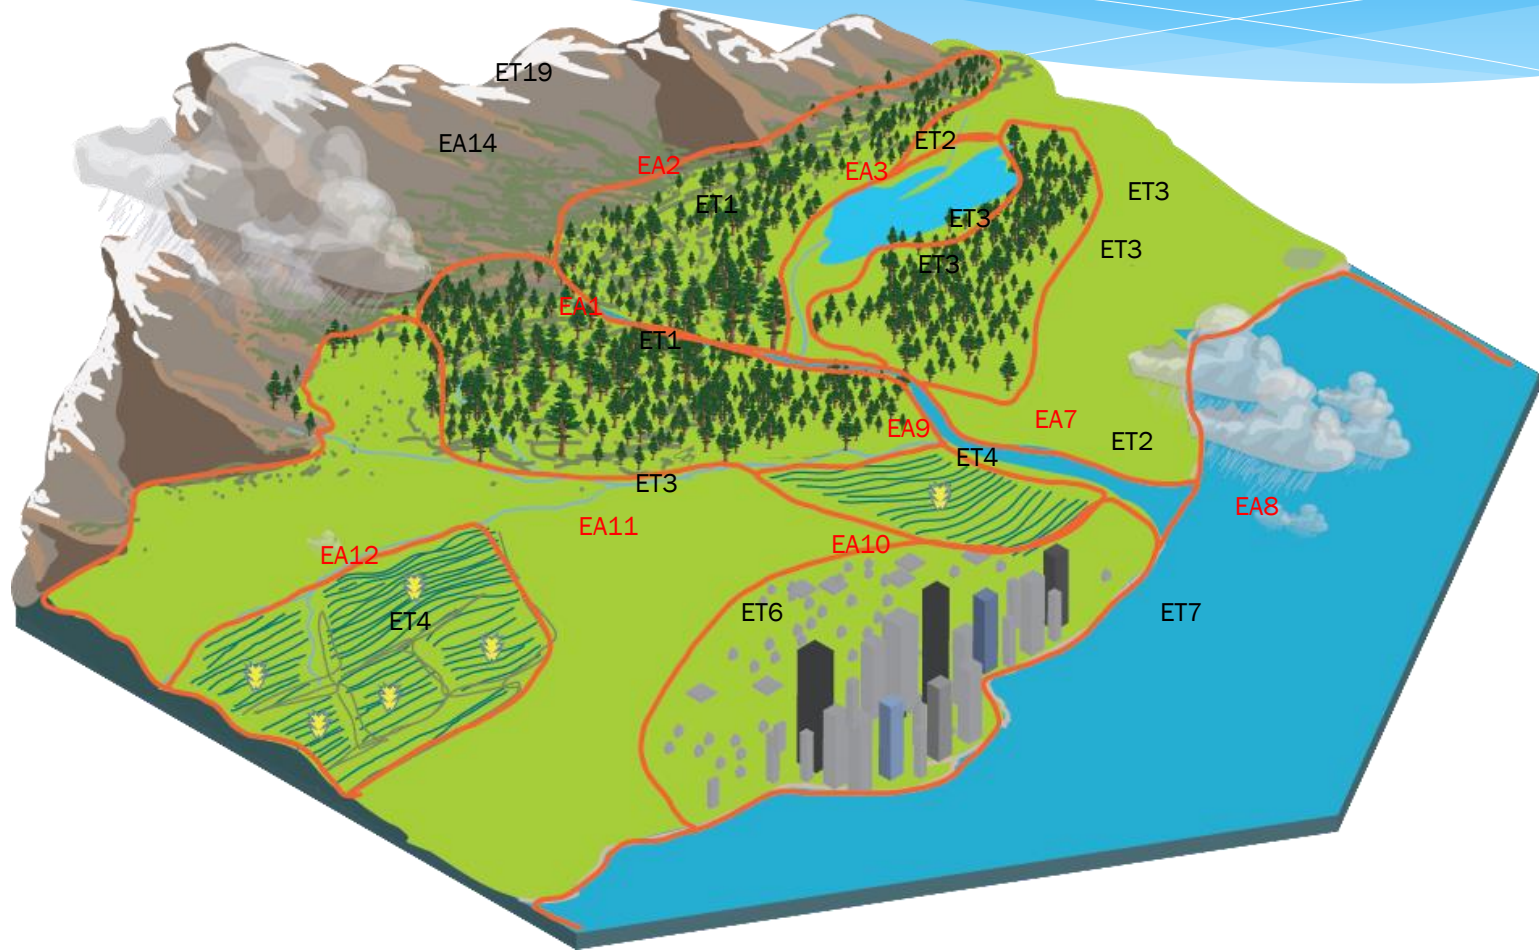

Coral reef

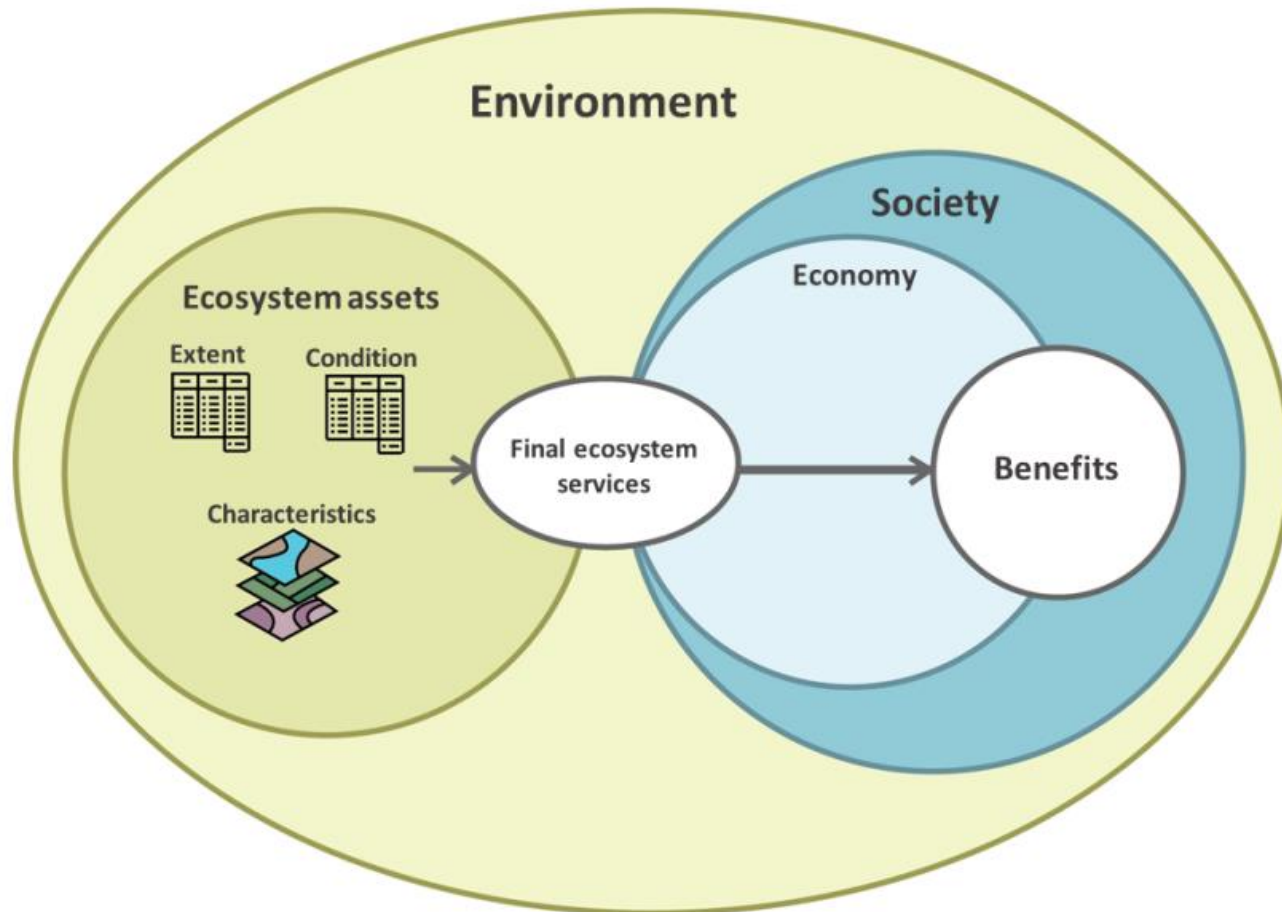

Wetlands

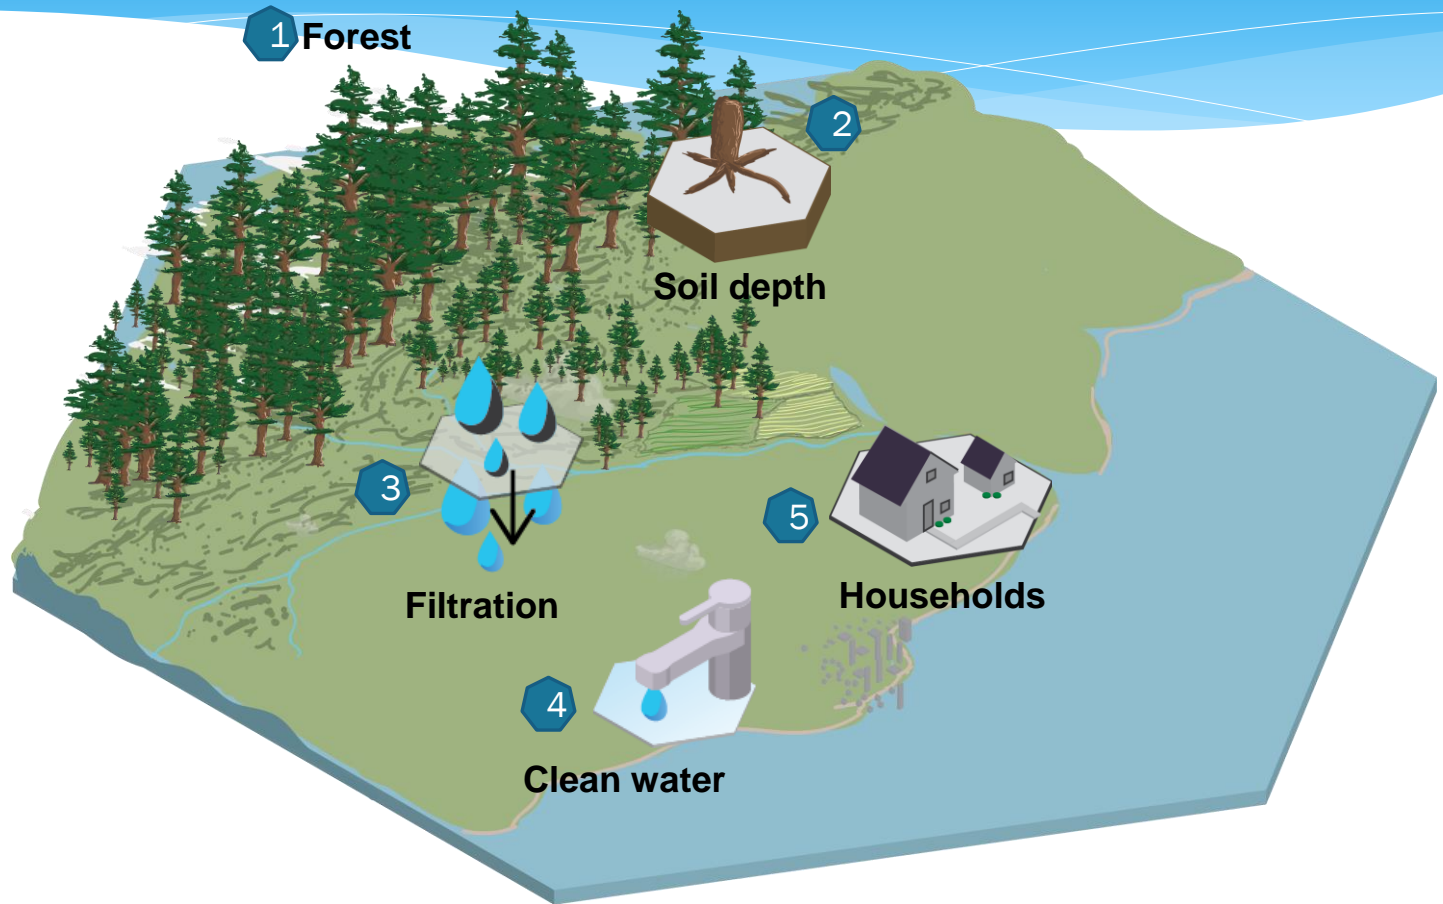

Ecosystem accounting approach

Ecosystem accounting framework

Illustration

- 1 Asset
- 2 Condition
- 3 Service
- 4 Benefit
- 5 Beneficiaries

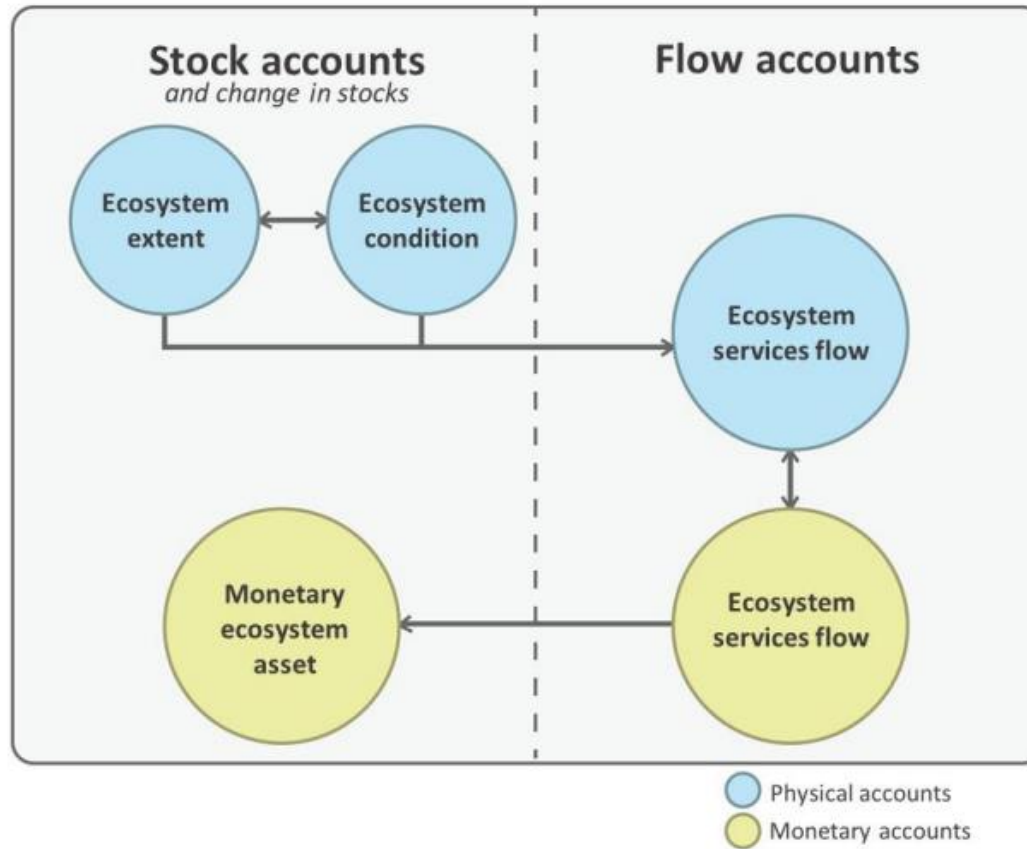

Another question

Please answer by clicking the choices in the chat!

Water filtration is an example of:

- A) Provisioning service
- B) Regulating and maintenance service
- C) Cultural service

Set of ecosystem accounts

Questions??

* Please type you questions in the Q&A box!