

DATE: 25 FEBRUARY 2021
TIME: 9.00 - 11.00 EST

REGISTER: bit.ly/3a6wnai
WEBSITE: <https://bit.ly/3dMKpBF>

FROM EXPERIMENTAL OCEAN ACCOUNTS TO SEEA-OCEAN

ORGANIZERS: UN-ESCAP WITH CANADA, THE GLOBAL OCEAN ACCOUNTS PARTNERSHIP, UNSD AND THE WORLD BANK

ABOUT THE SESSION

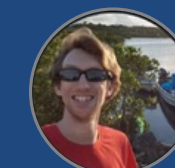

The side event will highlight and discuss:

- Policy relevance and demand for ocean accounts
- Global importance of progressing methodological guidance for ocean accounting
- Advancing SEEA-Oceans.

SPEAKERS

Philip James

Marine Economist, Marine and Fisheries Directorate /
Dpt. for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs, United Kingdom

Katesaraporn Wimonrat

Policy and Plan Analyst / Ministry of Tourism and Sports, Thailand

Crystal Bradley

Assistant Director, Environmental-Economic Accounts & International Partnerships for Nature / Dpt. of Agriculture, Water and the Environment, Australian Government

Carolyn Cahill

Director, Environment and Energy Statistics / Statistics Canada

Ken Findlay

Research Chair, Oceans Economies /
Cape Peninsula University of Technology

Email: stat.unescap@un.org

DATE: 25 FEBRUARY 2021
TIME: 9.00 - 11.00 EST

REGISTER: bit.ly/3a6wnai
WEBSITE: <https://bit.ly/3dMKpBF>

FROM EXPERIMENTAL OCEAN ACCOUNTS TO SEEA-OCEAN

ORGANIZER: UN-ESCAP WITH CANADA, THE GLOBAL OCEAN ACCOUNTS PARTNERSHIP, UNSD AND THE WORLD BANK

VOICES FROM CO-ORGANIZERS

Teerapong Praphotjanaporn
The Global Ocean Accounts Partnership

Rikke Munk Hansen
ESCAP

Alessandra Alfieri
UNSD

Olaf Schwab
Fisheries and Oceans Canada

Anthony Dvarskas
ESCAP

Catherine Van Rompaey
World Bank

Email: stat.unescap@un.org